Summary

Experienced data scientist skilled in AI, Machine Learning, Deep Learning, PyTorch, Python, and GCP/AWS. I teach at Harvard Extension, Harvard SEAS and Harvard Business School as a Teaching Fellow in many Machine Learning and Data Science courses. I also compete in data science competitions at Kaggle and have reached the Master level.

AWARDS (All of the following are NLP Competitions using PyTorch)

PII Data Detection – Ranked 4th out of 2048

LLM Detect AI Generated Text – Solo Rank 13th out of 4400

Feedback Prize – English Language Learning – Ranked 8th out of 2700

CommonLit – Evaluate Student Summaries – Ranked 11th out of 2100

EEDI Mining Misconceptions in Mathematics – Ranked 13th out of 1400

EXPERIENCE

Harvard University, MA - Teaching Fellow - Aug 2016 - Current

Teaching Fellow for multiple Machine Learning / Data Science classes at Harvard IACS, Harvard Business School Analytics Program (AC215, CS109A/B, Data Science Pipeline and Critical Thinking, CSCIE-82)

Aarete, IL - Data Scientist - March 2022 – Jan 2023

Recommended policy changes for potential savings using unsupervised and supervised learning with healthcare medical claims data.

Astrophysics Data System, Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics, MA - Data Scientist - Oct 2021 – March 2022

Data Scientist at ADS (via ScienceBetter) Natural Language Processing project - supervised key phrase extraction task.

Pfizer, MA - Data Scientist - Aug 2017 - Jun 2018

Data Scientist at Pfizer (via Atrium Staffing) - Utilized Machine Learning models to analyze and visualize wearable sensors data pertaining to Parkinson's Disease patients.

EDUCATION

Professional Graduate Certificate in Data Science, Harvard Extension School, Cambridge, MA

Master of Computer Applications, S.N.D.T. University, Post Graduate Dept. of Computer Science, Mumbai, India.

PS: I have returned to the workforce to focus on data science projects after taking a break to raise my kids. Previously, after completing my Master's degree, I worked as a software consultant at MRE Consulting (Houston, TX) and Tata Infotech Ltd. (Now TCS) Mumbai, India, for about 4 years.
